Latest Podcast Episodes:

Hypnosis and Guided Imagery

Cheryl O'Neil

Susan Gold

Gina Vance

Susan Ezra hosts a panel of Imagery International certified hypnotherapists who incorporate imagery in their work. There are surprises as each has something different to their offer. As is often the case with complementary/alternative practices the theory may be different. This is a fascinating presentation for anyone who is curious about the similarities and differences between Hypnosis and Guided Imagery. Click here to listen to the podcast.

Belleruth Naparstek on Military Applications

Belleruth Naparstek, the author of Invisible Heroes, discusses with host Susan Ezra why Guided Imagery is the treatment of choice for Post Traumatic Stress, combat stress, military sexual trauma and sleep disturbances among issues veterans have difficulty. Holocaust Remembrance Days: Creating New Narratives through the Experience of Trauma

Elizabeth Wolfson, PhD, LCSW joins Juliet Rohde-Brown, PhD on Juliet's show - Emotional Pathways on Webtalk Radio.

Elizabeth Wolfson

They discuss trauma and how survivors of the Holocaust are helping young traumatized youth to create new meanings and hope. She refers us to visit Portraits of Survival - Life Journeys During the Holocaust and Beyond to learn more. Listen to the program by clicking on Elizabeth Wolfson - Holocaust Remembrance.

What Is the Best Hypnosis Recording for You? by Stephanie Rothman

Just as the effectiveness of hypnosis and hypnotherapy varies from individual to individual, so too will the effectiveness of a hypnosis recording. However, it is my opinion that some recordings are better than others. Click here to read more.

Co-Editor Wanted

Hello Community,

Bev Hollander

I am sad to say, I've lost my dear co-editor, Judith Ewing. She is fine, don't misunderstand me, her life is just taking her in a different direction now. As a result, she is stepping down from her role. I want YOU!! Please consider contacting me - email bev@sheppardwest.com - to talk about what you might have to offer as my Co-editor.

Warmly, Bev Hollander

Editor ImagiNews
